Dear Mr Horthuis,

Re: Charity BBQ at Ballamaddrell Farm, Ballabeg - 19 July 2014

This event, organised by wife and I, the owners of Ballamaddrell Farm and one other couple, all from the congregation of the Abbey Church, Ballasalla, is to raise money for The Hospice IOM.

Tickets for the event cost £25 and, as an additional money-maker, we are holding a raffle with a few high-class prizes. In 2010, Robinsons kindly donated a voucher for the raffle at a musical evening to raise money for a much-needed sound system for the Abbey Church, which was much appreciated. I wondered whether you might be able to offer a similar or alternative prize for this new charity fund raising event.

With best wishes
Yours sincerely

Roy Storrs
