Good Morning Janna

Thank you so much for your recent kind support and generosity, with the Barclays Step Challenge.

We are still confirming final fundraising, however I am delighted to confirm that we are confident we have reached £10,000, which is truly amazing.

It was great to see so many external companies take part too. You have now been supporting us for the third year running and your fresh fruit and water is just what the volunteers need through out the entire event!

I have attached some pictures to give you a feel for the day.

Once again thank you for your support
